The Order for Morning Prayer.

¶ The Service shall be the same with the usual Office for Holy-days, except where it is in this Office otherwise appointed.

¶ Let him that ministereth read with a loud Voice these Sentences of Scripture; and after them the Exhortation, Dearly beloved Brethren, &c.

IN my trouble I will call upon the Lord, and complain unto my God. So shall he hear my voice out of his holy temple; my complaint shall come before him.

Psaln
xviii. 5.

To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him: neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us.

Daniel
ix. 9, 10.

¶ Instead of the Venite, this Hymn shall be used.

UNTO Thee, O Lord, will I lift up my Soul; my God, I have put my trust in Thee: O let me not be confounded, neither let mine Enemies triumph over me.

Psaln
xxv. 1.

Wherefore should the Heathen say, where is now their God?

Psaln
cxv. 2.

Pfalm
xcix. 1.

The Lord is King, be the Earth never so unquiet ;
the Lord is great in Sion, and high above all People.

Pfalm
cxvi. 4.

I shall find trouble and heaviness, and I will call upon the name of the Lord.

Pfalm
cxxxiii. 1.

Unto Thee lift I up mine eyes, O Thou that dwellest
in the heavens.

Pfalm
xciii. 5.

*The waves of the sea are mighty, and rage horribly,
but the Lord, who dwelleth on high, is mightier.*

Pfalm
xciv. 19.

In the multitude of sorrows that I had in my heart,
thy comforts have refreshed my soul.

Pfalm
xciv. 22.

The Lord is my refuge, and my God is the strength of my Confidence.

Pfalm
lxxxvi. 15.

Thou, O Lord God, art full of compassion and mercy, long suffering, plenteous in goodness and truth.

Pfalm
lxxxvi. 11.

Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I will walk in thy truth. O knit my heart unto Thee, that I may fear thy name.

Pfalm
lxxxiv. 9.

Behold, O God our Defender, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

Pfalm
lxxxiv. 5.

Blessed is the man, whose strength is in thee, in whose heart are thy ways.

Pfalm
lxxxiii. 2.

Lo! thine enemies make a murmuring, and they
that hate thee have lift up their heads.

Pfalm
lxxxiii. 16.

Make their faces asbamed, O Lord, that they may seek thy name.

Pfalm
xxix. 10.

The Lord shall give strength unto his people, the Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace.

Pfalm
lxxix. 9.

Help us, O God of our Salvation, for the glory of thy name; O deliver us and be merciful unto our sins for thy name's sake.

(in part)

ALMIGHTY and most merciful God, Creator and Governor of the World, we most humbly approach Thee with prayer and supplication for thy powerful succour in this time of our necessity. Look down from Heaven, O Lord, we beseech Thee, and assist our warfare against an enemy to all Christian Kings, Princes, and States; who, not having the Fear of Thee before his Eyes, trusteth in Violence, and delighteth in Blood. Confiding in thy Almighty Power, and thine infinite Goodness, we humbly implore the Pardon of our Sins, and Protection and Deliverance from the Calamities with which we are threatened.

Thou hast been our merciful God from generation to generation. Our fathers trusted in Thee and were holpen. And though we confess, with sorrow and confusion, that, in our Prosperity, we have not retained so grateful a Remembrance of Thee as we ought, yet we have not forgotten thy holy Name and Word. We are deeply sensible that all our efforts will be ineffectual, unless Thou, O God, from whom alone cometh our help, and from whom alone it can come, goest forth with our fleets and armies.

armies. Our counsels, our hearts, and our hands, are under thy Almighty direction. Direct them, O Lord, to such exertions, as may convince our enemies that we are thy people; and that thine arm, stretched out, can set at naught the most daring designs against our peace. Convert us, we beseech Thee, to a full sense and practice of our duty, and make our enemies know and feel, that Thou art the supreme disposer of all events, and that those, who lift up their banners against Thee, shall be humbled under thy mighty hand.

Hear us, O God our Saviour, save thy People that trusteth in Thee, for the sake and through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall follow the Second and Third Collects at Morning Prayer: And the Litany.

THE ORDER OF

THE ORDER OF

EVENING PRAYER

Let us pray for the world, and for all who are in it, that they may be preserved from all evil, and brought to the glory of God the Father, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Almighty God, we beseech thee, by thy Word, which is the power of God, to bring forth in our hearts the fruit of righteousness, and to keep us from all ungodliness and worldly lusts, that we may love thee with all our heart, mind, and strength, and our neighbor as ourselves, and ourselves as we love thee, and that we may be able to keep thy commandments, which are the love of God and the love of our neighbor.

The Constitution

Article I
Section 1
All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section 2
The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

Section 3
No Person shall be a Representative who shall not, when elected, have seven Years Residence in the United States; and no Person shall be a Representative who shall not, when elected, have been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and who, when elected, shall not, when elected, have been born in the United States.

Section 4
The Times, Places and Manner of holding the Elections of Senators and Representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by Law make or alter such Regulations, except as to the Places of Elections.

Section 5
The Congress shall have Power to regulate the Election and Term of Service of Senators and Representatives, and to make or alter such Regulations, except as to the Places of Elections.

Section 6
The Senators and Representatives shall receive a Compensation for their Services, which shall be ascertained by Law.

Section 7
No Money shall be drawn from the Treasury, but in Consequence of Appropriations made by Law; and the Congress shall have Power to borrow Money on the Credit of the United States, and to regulate the Value thereof.
